REVIEW OF PALAEOBOTANY AND PALYNOLOGY

Contents Volume 83, 1994

Wim Punt Special Issue (edited by H. van Konijnenburg-van Cittert and H. Kerp)
Foreword vii
At the retirement of Dr. W. Punt: 36 years of pollen morphology
C.R. Janssen ix
Pollen morphology and systematics of tribe Juanulloeae A.T. Hunziker (Solanaceae)
V. Persson, S. Knapp and S. Blackmore 1
Tetrad pollen in the subfamily Caesalpinioideae (Leguminosae) and its significance
I.K. Ferguson and H. Banks 31
Serjania pollen and the origin of the tribe Paullinieae (Sapindaceae)
R.W.J.M. van der Ham and A. Tomlik 43
Pollen ultrastructure and relationships of Fusaea (Baillon) Safford and Duguetia A. Saint-Hilaire (Annonaceae)
A.L. Thomas, B. Lugardon and J.A. Doyle 55
Corroded exines from Havinga's leaf mold experiment— structure of Fagus and Quercus exines
J.R. Rowley and J.J. Skvarla 65
Searching for a foveolate pollen exine
E.L. Vezey and J.J. Skvarla 73
The relationship between modern pollen samples and environment in the humid tropics region of northeastern Australia
A.P. Kershaw and D. Bulman 83
Fossil akinetes of Aphanizomenon and Anabaena as indicators for medieval phosphate-eutrophication of Lake Gosciaz (Central Poland)
B. van Geel, L.R. Mur, M. Ralska-Jasiewiczowa and T. Goslar 97
The importance of pollen and diatom taxonomic precision in quantitative palaeoenvironmental reconstructions
H.J.B. Birks 107
Differences in fossil seed-fruit-, wood-, and leaf-floras, taphonomy and ecological implications
J. van der Burgh 119
Reflections on the relationship between phytogeography, climate and evolution
V.A. Krassilov 131
Palynology of the Cretaceous–Tertiary boundary in the Scollard Formation of Alberta, Canada, and global KTB events
S.K. Srivastava 137
Ariadnaesporites and Capulisporites: "water fern" megaspores from the Upper Cretaceous of Central Europe
D.J. Batten, M.E. Collinson and E. Knobloch 159
Search for antecedents of Early Cretaceous monosulcate columellate pollen
N.F. Hughes and A.B. McDougall 175
Comparative ultrastructure of three Early Cretaceous gymnosperm pollen grains: Araucariacites, Balmeiopsis and Callialasporites
S. Archangelsky 185
Schmeissneria microstachys (Presl, 1833) Kirchner et Van Konijnenburg-Van Cittert, comb. nov. and Karkenia hauptmannii Kirchner et Van Konijnenburg-Van Cittert, sp. nov., plants with ginkgoalean affinities from the Liassic of Germany
M. Kirchner and J.H.A. van Konijnenburg-van Cittert 199
Rejection of a Carnian (Late Triassic) "pluvial event" in Europe
H. Visscher, M. Van Houte, W.A. Brugman and R.J. Poort 217
The first record of ferns from the Permian of Antarctica
J. Galtier and T.N. Taylor 227
Aspects of Permian palaeobotany and palynology. XIV. A new form-genus of broad-leaved Late Carboniferous and Early Permian Northern Hemisphere conifers
J. Broutin and H. Kerp 241

Fungi from the Lower Carboniferous of central France
T.N. Taylor, J. Galtier and B.J. Axsmith 253
Observations on the establishment of a Devonian and Lower Carboniferous high-resolution miospore biostratigraphy
M. Streel and S. Loboziak 261
Palynological record from the North Atlantic region at 3 Ma: vegetational distribution during a period of global warmth
D.A. Willard 275
Modern pollen deposition in the tropical lowlands of northeast Queensland, Australia
G.M. Crowley, J. Grindrod and A.P. Kershaw 299
Palynology of the Mackellar Formation (Beacon Supergroup) of East Antarctica
K.R. Masood, T.N. Taylor, T. Horner and E.L. Taylor 329
Komlopteris Barbacka, gen. nov., a segregate from Pachypteris Brongniart
M. Barbacka 339

Palynology of Arid Lands, by A. Horowitz—A. Graham 351
Evolution, An Evolving Theory, by C. Devillers and J. Chaline—B.J. Axsmith 352
Terrestrial Ecosystems Through Time: Evolutionary Paleoecology of Terrestrial Plants and Animals, edited by A.K. Behrensmeyer, J.D. Damuth, W.A. DiMichele, R. Potts, H.-D. Sues and S.L. Wing—J.L. Chapman 353
Pollen of Wet Evergreen Forests of the Western Ghats, India, by C. Tissot, H. Chicki and T.S. Nayar—H. Hooghiemstra 354

Errata 355
